

2017 PNW Consulting Rosarian Report

Please return your completed report to John Moe or Elena Williams

Name _____ Report date _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone number _____

Email address _____

Local society _____

Other societies you belong to _____

Did you do Roses in Review in 2017? ____yes ____no

If yes, approximately how many roses did you rate? _____

Do you want to continue to be a CR? ____yes ____no

If not, do you want to be considered for CR emeritus status? ____yes ____no

We would like to learn about the areas of rose growing that you are most interested in and want to participate in as a CR.

Did you write any articles about roses or rose culture this year? _____

Would you write an article for 2019 the American Rose magazine?

What subject areas could you write about? _____

Did you give any programs? If yes, please describe them.

What topics would you feel most comfortable giving programs about?

Your personal garden- Do you exhibit? Yes____ No____

Horizon Roses is a publication about exhibition roses.

Have you seen it? Yes____ No____

Would you be willing to contribute a few evaluations of exhibition roses in 2018?

Yes____ No____ (Elena emails information in July 2018)

As a CR, which roses would you recommend to a new grower or garden club member?

Do you grow disease resistant roses? Yes____ No____

If yes, share the names of good varieties:

Do you grow other roses with a reputation of being clean without spray?

Yes___ No___

Name some:

HT

FL

GR

Shrubs

Climbing roses

Miniature

Miniflora

What insects and/or disease did you see this season in your garden?

Do you do preventative spray for insects or disease in your garden? If yes, how often?

What do you use for insects?

What do you use for fungus? Brand names:

As a CR, what do you recommend to a casual rose grower for black spot and powdery mildew control?

What do you recommend for insects or spider mites?

Do you have a NO fungicide section of your garden?

If yes, what roses are included?

In the NO fungicide section of your garden, are the leaves less than 25% covered with disease?